

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

cures coughs and colds, even hard coughs and old colds.

Mrs. A. White, of Pittsford, Victoria, says: "I had a very hard cough night and day. I tried many remedies, but without relief. I thought my lungs were nearly gone. I then tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I began to improve at once, and only one and one-half bottles completely cured me."

There are many substitutes and imitations. Beware of them! Be sure you get Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Two sizes. Large and small bottles.

The only desirable means of reaching the Volcano. Connections at Mountain View with stages daily—morning trains going; afternoon trains returning. Fare from Hilo for the round trip $8. This route is through Olua plantation, the largest in Hawaii, virgin forests of koa and wild ferns, and through many coffee farms.

The natural wonders of Puna make that district the most interesting spot in Hawaii. One can spend a most delightful day exploring the underground caves, swimming in the famous Hot Springs and resting on the cool shores of Green Lake.

Excursion tickets between all points are sold on Saturdays and Sundays, good returning, until the following Monday noon.

Commutation tickets, good for twenty-five rides between any two points, and thousand mile tickets are sold at very low rates.

HONOLULU ELKS.

Extend Grand Welcome to Bishop Restarick of Episcopal Church.

Honolulu Lodge of the Order of Elks did itself honor brilliantly in a reception to Right Reverend H. B. Restarick, Episcopal Bishop of Honolulu, a member of the order. The assembly hall of the lodge in its handsome quarters at Beretania and Miller streets, was decorated in elaborate and tasteful style with American and Hawaiian flags, palms, plants and flowers. The reception was at 8:30, when a long procession of ladies and gentlemen advanced to the head of the hall to extend a welcome to the distinguished ecclesiastic who has lately taken up his home in Honolulu. A bevy of ladies assisted the lodge officers in receiving.

When the assembly was seated after the reception it filled nearly the entire floor and a large number of the members of the order and their gentlemen guests were happy in availing themselves of standing room.

Among prominent guests of the evening were Rev. Canon A. Mackintosh and wife, Rev. Canon Kitcat, Rev. Arthur Evans of Los Angeles, Mr. Fyler, secretary to Bishop Restarick; Messrs. Guard, Peck, McKinney and Gehr of the Hilo Lodge of Elks; Hon. John M. Thurston, Judge Estee, Lieutenants Davis and Newton, U. S. A., and Assistant Paymaster F. McKelvie, U. S. N.

An overture by the Hawaiian Quintet Club opened the literary and musical program, which was called off by A. E. Murphy, chairman of committee.

F. M. Brooks, Exalted Ruler, read an address of welcome to the Bishop, taking occasion to elucidate the principles of the order. Bishop Restarick was seated on the right of the presiding officer, to his right being Dr. C. B. Cooper, District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler. To the left of the E. R. were seated Canon Mackintosh and R. T. Guard, E. R. of Hilo Lodge. Songs with piano accompaniment, every one of which was endorsed, were given by Mr. Hertzner, Mrs. Annis Montague Turner, J. L. Rockwell, Mrs. Mott-Smith Bird and Miss Alice Campbell.

Between the vocal numbers came humorous monologues by Allan Dunn and Mr. Brien, causing uproarious mirth, music by the Hawaiian performers and a piano solo by Captain Berger.

Bishop Restarick delivered his reply to the address of welcome next to the closing orchestral overture and preceding the 11 o'clock toast to absent brothers, which ceremony he explained in happy terms to the assembly. The Bishop's speech was largely expressive of his delight with the scenes and people of his new home. He dwelt somewhat on the principles and practices of the Elks, telling in that connection that he esteemed it an honor to have been accorded life membership in his own lodge. Elks were among the last to bid him godspeed from the California shore and the first to welcome him upon the waves that dance upon the Honolulu harbor entrance. He made a beautiful allusion, in referring to the 11 o'clock rite, to the ocean as carrying to his imagination, messages of aloha and fond remembrance between friends upon both shores. Bishop Restarick justified the diversions of the Elks lodgeroom, claiming that innocent jollity is good for tired folks. The day when clergymen deemed it necessary to wear solemn faces had passed away. He told of a sedate bishop in England who while frolicking with his children ambled on all fours inadvertently into a company of church folks awaiting him in his parlor. The Bishop raised a great laugh on Canon Mackintosh, whom he represented as terrifying Mrs. Restarick in California by saying Honolulu people painted mosquitoes yellow and sold them as canaries to tourists.

Refreshments consisting of fruit punch, sandwiches and cake were served to everybody at the conclusion of the program. Some of the giddier of the assembly remained for a brief hop.—Bulletin.

SUGAR REFINERIES IN CANADA.

Federal Company of New York Plans Some Important Business.

Vancouver, B. C., August 28.—A special dispatch from Montreal says C. A. Spreckels, president of the Federal Sugar Refining Company of New York, spent today in this city and Ottawa with a number of the local capitalists, chiefly business friends of Sir William Van Horne, who is largely interested with Mr. Spreckels. He obtained from the Secretary of State letters patent incorporating his company in Canada with a capital stock of $6,000,000. Besides Mr. Spreckels the incorporators are W. Cooke, R. D. McGibbon, T. Chase Casgrain, M. P., and Fabvre Rurvor, all of Montreal.

The object of the company, as officially set out, is to establish sugar refineries operated under the special inventions and methods of Mr. Spreckels and to carry on business in Canada. In an interview Mr. Spreckels stated that steps would immediately be taken leading to the building of two large refineries in the Dominion, one at Montreal and the other at Vancouver.

Sir William Van Horne is a shareholder in the refinery at present located at Vancouver, and B. T. Rogers, manager at Vancouver, is stated here to have been offered by Mr. Spreckels the management of a monster plant to be erected either at Seattle or San Francisco. Mr. Spreckels claims that his company has obtained practical control of the output of the Hawaiian Islands.

MILES COMING.

General of U. S. Army Ordered to the Philippines.

Washington, August 26.—The War Department this afternoon gave out the order issued to General Miles to go to the Philippines. It is signed by William Cary Sanger, acting Secretary of War, and is as follows:

War Department, Washington 26, 1902.—Sir: I have the honor to state that your application for authority to inspect the portion of the army serving in the Philippines is approved by the President. You will sail about the 15th of September and inspecting the condition of the army will give particular attention to its instruction, discipline, and supplies of all kinds.

It is the understanding that in that capacity, though of superior rank, General Miles will not interfere in any way with either General Chaffee or his successor, General Davis, in the direction of the army in the Philippines. He will critically examine the conditions as he finds them, devoting his attention entirely to matters of army administration and not to political affairs, and the results of his work will be embodied in a set of reports. It is believed here that he will be accompanied by at least two members of his staff namely, Lieutenant Colonel Whitney and Colonel Reber, the latter his son-in-law. Colonel Maus, who is the inspecting officer of the staff, also may accompany General Miles, if his health, which is somewhat impaired at present, permits.

Bodies of Fairs Shipped.

Paris, Aug. 27.—The bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Fair were withdrawn from the Madeleine tonight and taken to the railway depot, where they were packed in separate deal cases, exactly similar to those used in shipping goods. The personality of the Fairs will be lost until the boxes reach New York on the American line steamship St. Louis. There were a few wreaths on the cases in the railway carriage, which will be removed before they reach Havre.
